

Calling historians and archivists!

Lady Bay Arts are offering a new annual opportunity to an local archivist or historian (aged 21+) to document some of the stories that make our Festival Weekend so special.

This is a chance to use your research skills and interest in people, time, and place to contribute to an ongoing archive of Lady Bay today.

This includes

A fee of up to £1100 to cover preparation, time over the weekend and creating outcomes.

Mentoring support from professionals to help frame your research and communicate results.

An exhibition of your stories to be shown at the 'Festival Weekend' in 2025.
