

Calling sound artists!

Lady Bay Arts are looking for a sound/ installation artist to document aspects of this year's Festival Weekend on 18-19 May to create an installation in 2025.

The brief is use your skills and interests as the basis for an installation communicating some of what the Festival Weekend is about - the people and the place.

This includes

A fee of up to £1100 to cover preparation, time over the weekend and creating the sound piece.

Mentoring support from professionals to help frame your research and communicate results.

An installation to be showcased at the 'Festival Weekend' in 2025.
